NORTHEAST YOUTH CORPS MEMBERS JOIN CCP;
GOVERNMENT PROMOTES RACIAL SOLIDARITY

20,000 NORTHEAST YOUTHS JOIN CCP -- New York Hua-ch'iao Jih-pao, 27 Jul 50

During March and April 1950, some 20,000 members of the New Democratic Youth Corps in the Northeast joined the CCP. This figure represents approximately 4 percent of the total membership of about 450,000 in the Northeast.

Those who joined the CCP were, for the most part, model members of the corps and were active in political work. They were all given thought training under the guidance of the CCP and the Corps.

INVESTIGATIVE PARTY INCLUDES OFFICIALS -- New York Hua-ch'iao Jih-pao, 11 Jul 50

Peiping, 2 July (Hsin-hua) -- An investigative party, made up of officials from the Central People's government's Commission on the Affairs of Nationalities, Committee on Culture and Education, and Ministries of Interior, Public Health, and Trade, as well as members of the Youth Corps and other people's organizations, left Peiping today for Szechwan, Sikang, Yunnan, and Kweichow. The mission of this party is to promote racial solidarity, to help the various racial groups with their problems, and to gather opinions regarding various administrative problems.

The party is headed by Liu Ko-p'ing (1) [numbers refer to appended characters]. His assistants include Fei Hsiao-t'ung (2) and Hsia K'ang-nung (3).
